RAILROADS REFUSE WAGE INCREASE TO ENGINEERS

Fifty Lines East of Chicago Declare They Are Financially Unable to Bear Increased Expense.

New York, March 25.—Fifty railroads, comprising practically all the lines east of Chicago and north of the Norfolk and Western, today refused to grant an increase in wages demanded by their locomotive engineers.

The engineers demand, presented on January 22, was for an increase amounting to about 19 per cent. a year. The railroads' refusal is based on the assertion that they are financially unable to bear the increased expense. The reply was presented today at a joint meeting of committees representing the brotherhood of locomotive engineers and twelve vice presidents and general managers of the railroads. The railroads point out that the proposed increase will amount to $7,553,792 annually.

Would Be Heavy Burden.

This increase they say would be equivalent to placing on their properties a lien of $188,884,108 of 4 per cent. securities, which would have preference over first mortgage bonds, "and to just that extent would lessen the ability of the roads to make the improvements necessary to increase the efficiency of their service and to insure greater safety to the public and employes."

The reply continues: "Already the traffic of a growing country has overtaxed the existing facilities, and the heavy burdens incurred through legislation, large expenditures for improvement, which produced no revenue, and the previous wage increases, have made it impossible for many of the roads to provide the added facilities which a prudent foresight demands.

"Past history indicates that if these increases are given to the engineers, they will be followed by similar requests from other employes which, if granted, would result in actual bankruptcy to some of the roads, and would leave them, as a whole, unprepared to

TAFT FORCES GO DOWN IN DEFEAT

Roosevelt Crowd Sweeps City of Fort Wayne and Twelfth District in Republican Primaries.

The breach that separates the Allen county Roosevelt and Taft factions is steadily growing in proportions and the republican primaries Saturday served to show that it is now a fight to the finish. Rejoicing reigns supreme, however, in the Roosevelt ranks over the sweeping victory Saturday night throughout the district and local leaders claim 75½ out of the total 89 delegates elected in the Twelfth district.

Especially gratifying to the Roosevelt adherents was the result in the city of Fort Wayne, where 22 out of 31 delegates were elected to boost the cause for the ex-president at the state meeting at Indianapolis tomorrow, at which time four delegates-at-large will be elected to attend the national convention at Chicago in June.

Swept Twelfth District.

The Roosevelt people practically swept the Twelfth district and, in fact, the whole of northeastern Indiana. In Fort Wayne the fight was hotly contested and both sides allege that unfair and treacherous political practices were used in securing votes. Roosevelt carried the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth wards and in the latter the Roosevelt delegates were elected by the vote of 221 to 42. In the Allen county rural districts Taft supporters received but seven popular votes out of 250 and it is stated that had it not been for a compromise at New Haven, Taft would have secured but one delegate in all the outside townships.

The results in the city were surprising to booth Roosevelt and Taft supporters. While the Roosevelt leaders expressed confidence that their champion would secure a majority, no expectations for such a sweeping victory had been entertained. It was practically assured that the outside townships would for Roosevelt delegates, but until the polls closed doubt was entertained on both sides as to the ultimate outcome.

Taft people, according to reports, do not exceed 15 per cent throughout the Twelfth district and many townships went solid for "Teddy." Roosevelt boomers declare that their vote came practically unsolicited and that very little money was spent in the campaign and in the city of Fort Wayne only one automobile was used in carrying voters to the polls.

Delegates Leave Today.

All delegates to the state meeting at Indianapolis leave today for the capital city. The Roosevelt delegates and their alternates left at 2 o'clock this afternoon in a special car over the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company lines, and the Taft delegates left at 11:15 over the Lake Erie and Western railroad. A few who could not get away at that time will leave at 5:20 o'clock this evening.

It is the intention to select delegates for the national convention this year from DeKalb and Lagrange counties. So far only two names have been decided upon and despite all the work done by the Roosevelt leaders, the DeKalb county people seem to have settled upon the name of Willis P. Rhoades, cashier at the City National bank at Auburn, who is a Taft man. It is frankly stated that Mr. Rhoades has failed to take a stand for the Oyster Bay colonel. There is also a strong likelihood that W. H. Willenar, of Auburn, will be indorsed by the Roosevelt following. Mr. Willenar up to this time has remained silent on the matter of which side he prefers, but it is generally understood that he is a Roosevelt supporter and if elected at the meeting tomorrow will vote for "Teddy" at the national convention.

There is a sentiment in Lagrange county favoring ex-Congressman C. C. Gilhams and his friends would like very much, according to reports, to send him to the national meeting, but the majority in Lagrange county are strong for Roosevelt and refuse to indorse Mr. Gilhams unless he changes his views and

HUGE ICE JAMS FORM IN ST. JOE

Big Gorge Near a Mile Long and Six Feet Thick Lodged in Stream Three Miles North of Fort Wayne.

Two large ice jams have formed in the St. Joe river, three and one-half miles north of Fort Wayne and have caused the river to overflood its bed for nearly a mile beyond the gorge. The northern gorge is directly opposite the Roebuck farm and is causing the people in the vicinity considerable worry. The southern gorge is about three-fourths of a mile long and the ice is piled between six and seven feet high. The first gorge is a little more than a quarter mile long. It is stated that several large cakes of ice are holding the jam which formed when the high water of the St. Joe receded after the floor.

The jam is of sufficient thickness to back the water for some distance over the adjoining fields. It is expected that it will not break until the melting snow again raises the river.

Warmer Weather Due.

Weather Forecaster W. S. Palmer announces fair and warmer weather for the next forty-eight hours. Mr. Palmer declares that Fort Wayne and surrounding territory just received the edge of the snow storm Sunday morning. In Kansas City and Missouri more than two feet of snow is reported. The weather chart at the local station shows heavy rains from the Ohio valley to the gulf of Mexico. In New Orleans, seven inches of rain fell during the last two days.

The river guage in the Maumee at 7 o'clock this morning registered a depth of ten and one half feet.

STUDENTS START BANK IN SCHOOL

Sixty-One Depositors Are Registered at Jefferson Building.

MANY HAVE ACCOUNTS

Sixty-one of the pupils at the Jefferson building deposited $29.43 when the first school bank in Fort Wayne was opened this morning and in each room there was a lively scramble to be first on the books that were opened by the teachers.

Prof. F. W. Miles, principal of the school stated that a number of the students stated they had forgotten their money and asked to be allowed to deposit it later in the day but they were told that the bank would be run on strictly business principles and that it would open promptly at 8:30 every Monday morning and close half an hour later and that they could not start their accounts until next Monday.

This was done in order to impress them with the importance of promptness in such matters and it is believed that more will enter into the undertaking next week.

It was found that 100 children already have their own bank accounts with the banking institutions of the city and no effort will be made to get them to change but the teachers will endeavor to get those who have not started accounts interested, with the hope that the business will increase rapidly.

All of the teachers promised to encourage the banking idea and they entered into the proceedings of the first day with so much enthusiasm that Prof. Miles is fully convinced that the project will be successful and will serve to teach the children to save their money.

CALLS SOLONS IN SPECIAL SESSION

Illinois to Have Preferential Presidential Primary Act.

GOV. DENEEN ACTS

Chicago, March 25.—Governor Deneen today called the state legislature in special session to pass a preferential presidential primary act to be effective for the state primary, April 9th.

Some time ago the governor announced that if two-thirds of the members of the legislature would agree to pass an effective presidential preference primary act he would issue the call. The necessary number signified their readiness to vote in favor of such a bill today and the call was immediately issued.

The convening of the special session is set for tomorrow at Springfield and two bills, one for presentation in the senate and the other to be introduced in the lower house already have been prepared. As an emergency measure to go into immediate effect the bill would require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the legislators to place it in the statute books.

Of 4,501 vessels from foreign ports that arrived in New York city in 1911, only eleven were sailing ships. In a few years a "square rigger" will be almost as great a curiosity as the caravels of Columbus.

PLEADS FOR INDIANA.

Chicago, March 25.—Chicago and Indiana clashed today over the location of the main freight harbor for Chicago in a hearing before Lieut. Col. George A. Zinn, of the war department.

Governor Marshall, of Indiana, advocated the establishment of the lake freight harbor at Indiana Harbor and the deepening of the Calumet river.

The Chicago real estate board, the Chicago plan commission, the sanitary district and other Chicago organizations were represented at the meeting and presented a measure advocating the location of the harbor at Chicago.

LOST HIS APPENDIX AND THEN HIS TEMPER.

Muncie, Ind., March 25.—That there is some weird, strange connection between the appendix and good temper, is the belief set forth by Mrs. Nettie Franklin, suing Arthur Franklin for divorce, after thirty-four years of married life. For twenty-nine years, she says, she and her husband lived together happily, and then he was attacked with appendicitis. The appendix was removed, and after that his whole disposition changed, she sets forth in her complaint. With the loss of his appendix he grew moody and sullen, she avers, found constant fault with her and even refused to pass food to her while at the table. Franklin will not contest the suit.

TAFT FORCES LEAD IN STATE BUT MARGIN IS NARROW ONE

Unofficial Returns Show Administration Majority of About 150 in State Convention Tomorrow.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 25.—President Taft won three of the four district republican conventions held in Indiana today, losing the Eleventh to Col. Roosevelt.

In the Third, Fourth and Fifth districts the delegates elected to the national convention in Chicago were instructed to vote for President Taft for renomination.

The delegates chosen are as follows: Fourth district at North Vernon, J. H. Montgomery and Webb Woodfill, instructed for Taft; Fifth district at Terre Haute, W. R. McKeen and S. A. Haynes, instructed for Taft.

Eleventh district at Wabash, David E. Harris and John P. Kenovers, instructed for Roosevelt.

RACE IS A CLOSE ONE.

Returns Indicate Slight Taft Majority in Convention Tomorrow.

Indianapolis, March 25.—Four district conventions this afternoon and a state convention tomorrow will go far toward deciding the close contest between the supporters of President Taft and Col. Roosevelt for a majority of the Indiana delegation of thirty to the national republican convention. Two delegates are to be elected in the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Eleventh districts today and at tomorrow's state convention four delegates-at-large will be chosen. Other district conventions are to follow.

Confident claims of victory were issued today from both the Taft and Roosevelt headquarters. Unofficial returns from ward and township primaries or meetings at which convention delegates have been elected show the Taft faction will have a majority of about 150 in the state convention and will carry seven of the thirteen districts, but margins are so narrow in many districts certain decision must wait on the results of the conventions. The Roosevelt managers are claiming eight districts and the state convention.

Fight in Four Districts.

Forty-seven Taft delegates and 46 Roosevelt delegates in the Third district convention at New Albany today will fight for control of the district delegation to the national convention. In the Fourth district convention at North Vernon, the Taft element is credited with 57 29-42 and its opponents with 48 13-42. President Taft's adherents will go into the Fifth district convention at Terre Haute with a long lead over the enemy, 65 to 31.

These three conventions are in the southern part of the state, the fourth is in the northern, in the Eleventh district, and here Col. Roosevelt's followers will have, when they assemble at Wabash, 64 2-3 votes to 53 1-3 for Taft.

District meetings are to be held in this city tonight to choose members of the credentials and resolutions committee for tomorrow's state convention.

Mr. Lee's Statement.

Edwin M. Lee, leader of the Roosevelt forces, gave out a statement last night claiming a majority of 85 for the former president, while Captain Harry S. New, national committeeman and leader of the administration faction, contends President Taft will be upheld by a majority of 20 at least.

Mr. Lee in his statement, declares

Pioneer Citizen Suffers Relapse in Attack of Lagrippe.

Solomon Bash, 1122 West Wayne street, pioneer citizen of Fort Wayne, is very ill at his home. Mr. Bash has been suffering from an attack of lagrippe and was apparently improving until 9 o'clock this morning, when a relapse developed and the attending physicians say his case is critical.

MOVING DAY FOR THE TRACTION CO.

All Offices Are Going Into New Location on Pearl Street.

NOW LAYING TRACK

By tomorrow evening all of the general offices of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company will have been removed to the new station site on Pearl street and only the station itself will remain at the corner of Pearl and Harrison streets. The office effects of the purchasing department are being moved today, and the assistant general manager's office will be moved tomorrow. The dispatcher's office will be changed to its new location tomorrow night. The general manager's office will occupy quarters on the second floor of the building at 310 West Main street.

The company's lease on the present station building expires April 1 and it is expected that the station will be moved to the new location shortly after that time. Workmen are at present engaged in arranging the trackage at the new station site, but several days will be required to complete the work so that all cars can be accommodated.

R. W. Watson, of New York, vice president of the company, who was in the city Saturday afternoon, left Sunday for Boise City, Idaho, on a business trip.

ASSURES COURT HE IS NOT DEAD

Phineas Preston Objects to Legal Decree at Muncie.

WANTS IT RESCINDED

Muncie, Ind., March 25.—Phineas Preston denies that he is dead. Today, in the circuit court, Preston, who is a civil war veteran, asked that he be declared legally and actually alive and that the administrator appointed to care for his share of his fathers' estate be discharged.

As relatives had not heard from Preston for nine years, a few weeks ago they had him declared legally dead in order to settle up an estate. When Preston, who had been living in Evansville, heard that he was dead, he denied it and came to Muncie to straighten things out. His relatives are helping him to prove his identity.

When Dayle Celebrated St. Patrick's Day

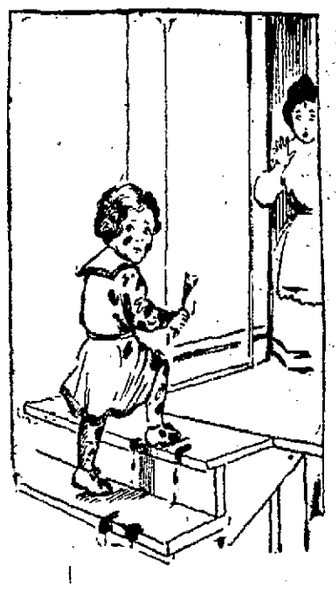
"WHEN St. Patrick's day rolls around each year," said Mrs. Abner Meyer, of 724 Riverside avenue, "I am reminded of one of the funniest things that ever happened in our family, though it wasn't at all funny at the time. Dayle, my little boy, was four years old—he's seven now—and I had allowed him to play in the basement where our motherly old house cat was providing a home for a family of three small Maltese kittens. All at once I noticed that there had been a death-like stillness in the basement for fifteen or twenty minutes; this, as all mothers know, is a danger signal, for the quiet child is usually into mischief. I called:

"'Dayle, come here to mamma.'

"The voice from the basement replied, 'I tummin.'

"And he did come. As soon as I saw him I flew down stairs to see what havoc he had wrought there—and there was surely havoc a-plenty.

"The painters had been doing some work about the house, and among the partly used pails of paint left in the basement to be called for later was one of bright green. There in the basket in the corner were three of the sorriest looking kittens you ever saw. Their once Maltese coats were a bright green, where the boy had spread on the paint. What to do puzzled me, and the careful use of a large quantity of gasoline failed to bring results, so I had to turn them over to their poor, distracted mother, who sat mewing her heart out over her disfigured darlings.



"And he did come."

"I spent the remainder of the day removing the paint from my boy. When his Grandma Meyer asked him why he painted the kittens, he said:

"'Tos it was Saint Pattil's Day.'"

fayette Methodist church yesterday, fire starting in the basement of the building from an overheated furnace rapidly enveloped the auditorium in smoke and flames. Rev. M. C. Wright, pastor, and the Sunday school instructors succeeded in getting the children to file out in good order. No one was injured.

The church suffered a loss of about $7,000. The interior of the building was gutted, and for a time it was thought the walls were doomed. The Lafayette fire department was called and assisted in fighting the flames. After a hard fight that lasted nearly two hours, the flames were subdued.

Several hundred Purdue students came on the run and assisted the firemen. The fire started under the pipe organ, which is a total loss. The church was built twelve years ago at a cost of $35,000 and there is only an indebtedness of $200 on it. It was one of the most imposing buildings in West Lafayette.

Rev. M. C. Wright is a Fort Wayne young man, who entered the ministry from this city a few years ago.

TAFT FORCES LEAD; MARGIN NARROW

Roosevelt has the Second, Third, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth congressional districts for a total of 806 delegates. He says the Roosevelt faction hopes to be able to unseat many delegates elected in the primaries in this (Marion) county and the fight for the control of the convention will begin with the meeting of the credentials committee.

Fred A. Sims, chairman of the republican state committee, says that President Taft has a majority of the delegates thus far with only a few counties remaining to be accounted for. Mr. New did not designate the districts claimed by the Taft forces, but said the president would have eight certainly and possibly ten districts.

As Mr. New Sees It.

"There is not the least doubt that Taft will have a majority of approximately 200 in the state convention Tuesday," said Captain New last night. "He will also carry a majority of the congressional districts, certainly eight and possibly ten. These include the First and Seventh districts, which already have elected their delegates.

"I am perfectly certain that these figures are substantially correct as I have been at the greatest pains to verify them and have gone over them time and again to eliminate every doubtful chance from our calculations until I am perfectly satisfied that this statement of conditions will be borne out by Tuesday's convention.

"The extravagant claims that are being made by our opponents are certainly without any substantial foundation and from the information I have I am convinced that they view the situation about the same as I do."

William Jones, who has been a patient at St. Joseph's hospital for the past two weeks, is now at his home, 1330 Michigan avenue.

DEATH COMES TO MRS. S. D. BOND

Brings Sorrow to a Very Wide Circle of Friends.

OTHER DEATHS TODAY

After lingering between life and death for more than a week, Mrs. Stephen D. Bond, died late Saturday night at the family residence on West Berry street. While Mrs. Bond had been in ill health since Christmas, it was only two weeks ago that her condition became serious, and in spite of the untiring efforts of her physicians she gradually gred weaker and for a few days before her death all hope for her recovery had practically been given up on account of complications which set in. During her entire illness Mrs. Bond exhibited indomitable will power, and her courage was the marvel of the attending physicians. Announcement of her death comes as a sorrowful shock to hundreds of friends.

Mrs. Bond was Miss Grace Gorham, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Gorham, of this city. She was born in the Hamilton house July 12, 1869. As a young girl she was a distinct social favorite in Fort Wayne. April 25, 1888 she was married to Stephen D. Bond, and their silver wedding anniversary was to have been celebrated one year from the coming April.

One daughter, Miss Georgiana Bond, was born to them, and survives with the husband and father.

Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mr. Bond went to Indianapolis, where they resided fifteen years, returning to Fort Wayne but a few years ago. Mrs. Bond was a popular favorite in social life of the city, and her charming personality, lofty character and womanly graces endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. Mrs. Bond was a devoted member of Trinity Episcopal church and of the Trinity parish guild.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the residence, Rev. Dr. Louis Brown, of Indianapolis, and Rev. E. W. Averill, of Fort Wayne, officiating. The funeral and interment will be private. The pall bearers are Charles E. Bond, Hugh McCulloch Bond, J. Ewing Bond, William H. Watt, Walter A. Barrett and Albert S. Bond.

Local Forecaster.

LOCAL FORECAST.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 25.—For Fort Wayne and vicinity: Fair and warmer tonight and Tuesday; lowest temperature tonight about 25 degrees.

GENERAL FORECAST.

Washington, March 25.—For Indiana: Fair in south portion, snow or rain in north portion tonight or Tuesday; warmer.

For Ohio: Fair and slightly warmer tonight; Tuesday increasing cloudiness and warmer with probably local snow or rain in extreme north portion.

For Lower Michigan: Unsettled and warmer with local snow tonight or Tuesday.

Summary of Weather Conditions.

The storm which covered the southwest Saturday morning moved northeastward, and is off the New England coast this morning; it gave heavy snow over much of Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, and heavy rains from the Ohio valley to the gulf coast, and heavy rain or snow over the north Atlantic coast districts. It has been followed by fair and colder weather throughout the central states, with freezing temperatures this morning as far south as Arkansas and northern Georgia. In the northwest temperatures are moderating, under the influence of a low pressure area which covers that section of the country.

In this section fair weather is probable for tonight and Tuesday, with somewhat higher temperature, although no very warm weather seems probable for the next two or three days.

DECATUR NEWS.

Decatur, Ind., March 25.—E. M. Wagner is home from Fort Wayne where he secured a number of Bohemians from the Rolling mills to work in this county in the cultivating of beets for the sugar plant.

W. H. McBarnes of this city, has secured a patent from the patent office at Washington, D. C., on an improved model of velocipide which he has been working on for some time. Mr. McBarnes will probably begin the manufacture of same in the near future. Another Adams county man to secure a patent the past week is A. P. Teter of Berne, on a revolving harrow which he also has worked faithfully to obtain the above accomplishment.

The condition of Mrs. A. P. Beatty, who on Thursday morning underwent an operation for a lingering illness, remains about the same although there appears to be a slight change towards improvement.

Fire which Sunday afternoon destroyed the Williard Steele property on N. 1st St. and occupied by the Elmer Smith family and for awhile threatened the destruction of the Bosse opera house, was put under control just in time or a much greater loss would have been the result. Mrs. Smith and family were absent at the time being at the home of a sick neighbor when the alarm was sent in, and rushing home found the neighbors carrying out household goods and the blaze, caused from a defective flue, already eating its way through the roof of the house.

The remains of Mrs. William H. Baker, a Decatur resident of many years, and who died at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening while visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Eli Peterson and Mrs. Robert Ernsberger, at Jeffersonville, Ind., arrived this afternoon over the G. R. & I. for burial. Mrs. Baker with her husband had gone on a visit last January and while there was taken ill. Interment at the Decatur cemetery.

Friends of the LaDell's have received word from the clever magicians who are now holding forth at Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and other large cities previous to that that they were anxious to receive word permitting them to return to Decatur after a long and tiresome engagement on the road.

Lucile Andrews daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Andrews, sprang quite a surprise on her parents when she 'phoned them word Saturday from Bluffton that she had been wedded to Paul Tribolet a well known Bluffton young man. The affair although expected for some time was not looked for so unexpectedly as nothing had been said relative to their planned undertaking. The happy party left Thursday noon for Hillsdale, Mich., and later were wedded by a Methodist minister. They will reside at Bluffton where the groom has an excellent position as agent for the Marion, Bluffton and Eastern Railroad company.

D. B. Moore left for Albion in response to a death message of his uncle, Dr. Lemmon, which occurred on Saturday morning at an early hour.

Mrs. Harry Horn, of Union City, was in the city over Sunday for a short visit with her brother, Fred Schaub. Her husband also spent the day in the city.

Mrs. Malinda Fronefield, of Fort Wayne, has returned home after several days' stay here with friends.

Ex-County Clerk James P. Haefling, now state accountant, and who has been going over the books of the Lake county officials at Crown Point, spent Sunday here with his family.

Miss Lilly Teeple is at Carey, Ohio, to attend the funeral of a friend.

Architect Oscar Hoffman is home from a business trip to Winchester.

Margaret, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nichols, in the south part of the city, is quite sick with convulsions.

John Starost, a well-known business man, is quite sick with an attack of heart trouble.

Miss Glades McMillen is home from Pleasant Mills where she spent Sunday with her parents.

John B. Holthouse is home from Bluffton where he was looking after some business relative to his cement plant there.

Miss Stella Bremerkamp spent Sunday with friends at Portland.

Clem Steigmeyer is home from Bloomington for a visit of a week or ten days with his parents. This is Mr. Steigmeyer's first year in the state university.

Council Will Taks Up the Bond Issue With Citizens.

At a special meeting tonight the city council as a committee of the whole will hear arguments of citizens of the First ward for and against the proposed issue of bonds for river beautification. Both factions are lining up for the fray.

Morton A. Mergentheim, of Chicago, is a democratic candidate for the nomination for associate judge of the municipal court of Cook county. Mr. Mergentheim's many friends in this city will be interested in the fact. Mr. Mergentheim has been chief assistant city attorney of Chicago since April, 1911, and has risen rapidly in his profession of law.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

REFUSE TO WEAR CAPS AND GOWNS

Roanoke School Graduates Up in Arms Against Ruling of the School Board.

Roanoke, Ind., March 25.—The entire senior class of the Roanoke high school, backed by their parents, are up in arms against the ruling of the town school board that the students of the school who participate in graduating exercises shall wear caps and gowns during the exercises.

Just now the question is whether there will be any graduating exercises. The state board of education recently ruled that no school board could refuse a diploma to a student who refuses to participate in commencement exercises, but also ruled that the school board could refuse to have exercises if the students did not conform to their wishes in the matter. Hence the crisis in the controversy.

The entire class is protesting against the ruling of the board, which was made one year ago. Superintendent Craig thinks that the minds of the board will not be changed.

GIVEN TO THE CHURCH.

Mrs. Decker Wills Bulk of Property to Presbyterian Church.

Decatur, Ind., March 25.—The will of the late Mrs. Sarah Decker was duly probated Saturday. She provides for the payment of debts, and asks that a suitable monument be erected at the grave of her husband, Peter Decker. The following bequests of money are then given: To the Sam Henry post, G. A. R., this city, $25; to the Women's Relief corps, $25; to the trustees of the First Presbyterian church, Decatur, $50. Her real estate, which consists of the house and lot where she resided, and all her personal property, she asks to be sold as soon as possible after her death, to pay the aforesaid bequests, and what remains then to be given to the trustees of the First Presbyterian church. She asks that John Glockler be appointed executor. The will was written April 14, 1910.

A new $900 Baldwin Grand piano has been bought for the church.

WILL FILE REMONSTRANCE.

Bluffton, Ind., March 25.—A blanket remonstrance against saloons is in circulation in Nottingham township, and it is expected to file it in time for the April term of the board of county commissioners. It is reported that those carrying the remonstrance are readily securing names and the township will be made "dry" without a doubt.

As to Discipline.

The young teacher should learn and the older teacher remember that for every teacher that fails on account of lax discipline, there is another who fails on account of over-government. Some teachers assume the same attitude as the policeman who found two men talking on the street corner and ordered them to move on, as there was an ordinance prohibiting crowds gathering on the streets. One man remonstrated, saying that two did not make a crowd. "One makes a crowd, if I say so," answered the policeman. A teacher who assumes that whatever he says is law, and it is law because he says it, is making a sad mistake. When the pupils have a definite aim to do and the teacher has a definite aim in what he does, there will be no time nor occasion to "maintain order." It will maintain itself.—Missouri School Journal.

How to Gain Flesh.

A simple but sure way to increase the weight, it is asserted by several well known physicians, is to take regularly for several months, one or two 3 grain hypo-nuclane tablets after each meal. These little tablets have the distinguished merit of increasing the red and white blood corpuscles, aiding digestion and promoting assimilation and absorption of the elements in the food which go to make blood and solid tissues. They are obtainable in sealed packages from physicians and well stocked apothecary shops.

LOCAL REVOLT AGAINST TAFT.

Some new and decidedly striking political history in the Twelfth congressional district has been made within the past few days. Republican voters in the primaries for the selection of delegates to the Indianapolis convention tomorrow, where Indiana's delegates-at-large to the republican national convention at Chicago will be chosen, have indicated beyond question that they are ready to toss the president overboard and follow the fortunes of Colonel Roosevelt during the coming presidential struggle.

More than this, they are emphatic about it. The rural precincts, admittedly favorable to Roosevelt from the outset, have been joined by the voters in the cities and the towns in such overwhelming force that the representation of the Taft contingent in the Twelfth district deledation appears to be almost pitifully small. Even in the city of Fort Wayne, where a very substantial number of old-time recognized leaders of the party united in an apeal to republicans to stand by the president, and where it was believed some considerable Taft strength would be shown, the Roosevelt faction of the party has carried off the bulk of the delegates.

Whether inspired by a belief that the president has failed to make good, or by a conviction that in the changing of popular sentiment, Colonel Roosevelt is the only leader with whom the republican party will be able to make a creditable showing at the election next November, the fact remains that the local revolt against Mr. Taft has given a demonstration of its strength that is doubtless as much of a surprise to the Roosevelt leaders themselves as to the conservative element of the party which believes that under the time-honored traditions of American politics the president is entitled to a renomination. Mr. Roosevelt's adherents have been retarded by no overpowering modesty in their claims, but not even the most enthusiastic of them had the temerity to predict the utter rout of the Taft forces that has actually occurred in the Twelfth district.

The situation is one which has no parallel in the history of this district, if, indeed, a similar situation ever existed in any other, and the breach is one that is likely to widen rather than to narrow. If it should transpire that Colonel Roosevelt is chosen at the Chicago convention, all save a comparatively small percentage of the Taft republicans are likely to fall in line for him in November. On the other hand, if one may judge by the present indications, the president with a renomination is not likely to be able to win back into the fold so large a proportion of the Roosevelt republicans who do not hesitate to declare their belief that the party cannot win with Mr. Taft as its leader this year. In either event the republicans will go into the campaign with the handicap of a divided house.

Fort Wayne has already delayed too long the active steps for a larger park system, for the beautification of its river frontage and for other improvements essential to enable the city to keep step in the march of civic progress. Every year of further delay will add to the expense of a work that must be undertaken sooner or later. The plans in prospect provide for a share in these benefits for every section of the city, including a new park in the territory most remote from the rivers. It is a work which, when completed, will be a source of justifiable pride to every citizen. It is not proposed to burden the people with taxation, but to carry the work forward step by step precisely as the private citizen or the man in business improves his surroundings as he finds himself able to do so. Opposition to the proposed bond issue of $200,000 for the purchase of the river frontage and new park tracts, however well-meaning and sincere it may be, will pass away when the first fruits of the new development begin to apear. The Sentinel believes the city council can do no greater service at this time than to authorize the bond issue.

The moving picture men who framed up and staged a reproduction of the shooting up of the court at Hillsville, Va., to offer as a contribution to the program of elevating entertainment to be served to the public through the medium of the films were enterprising, but hasty. Doubtless after Sid Allen and his gang have been taken, if they are captured alive, they could easily have been induced to accept a professional engagement to re-enact the tragedy in pantomime and thus enable the picture houses to offer the original cast in the production. There is always the chance, of course, that Mr. Allen may be dead before the officers get him, but the prospect looks like one worth waiting for.

More than ordinary interest attaches to the announcement that within a few weeks the department of justice will institute proceedings under the Sherman anti-trust law against a dozen or more railroads, a host of mining companies, dock companies, coal warehousing and selling concerns, charging conspiracy to control and restrict trade in anthracite and bituminous coal all over the United States. It is charged that the "trust" controls practically all the anthracite and a vast amount of bituminous coal, and that agreements exist between the several constituents which are in direct violation of the Sherman law. It is alleged that by stock ownership or agreement the railroads are able to dictate to the private wharves and warehouses and control prices. The coal consumer, public and private, has long cherished a pretty firmly fixed opinion that a little more illumination upon the inside workings of the coal handling situation couldn't possibly do any harm and it might help somewhat. Let the investigation proceed.

Though Dr. Wiley is out of official position, he is evidently determined to be useful as a private citizen, and in his first appearance in that capacity before the pure food board there was a spiritual clash between the former government chemist and a crowd of drug representatives to whom Dr. Wiley applied the expressive term, "dopers." Dr. Wiley's retirement was regretted for many reasons, but there is yet an opportunity to be of distinct service to the public outside of an official capacity.

There can be no gainsaying the high party standing and the representative character of the eminent coterie of Fort Wayne republicans who constitute the Taft organization in the present party crisis, but it will be observed that it did not embrace sufficient ballast to prevent the insurgents from rocking the boat.

Colonel Roosevelt is scheduled to speak but ten minutes in Fort Wayne on Wednesday, but there can be, if necessary, members of his own party found here who will contend that ten minutes will be plenty, thank you.

PRESS UNITED AGAINST COAL STRIKE.

"Almost Painful Interest."

Boston Advertiser:—"The country is watching with an almost painful interest for some signs which will tell whether there is to be a great coal strike on the first of April or not. The American people do not want to have all of their activities tied up by such an event."

"Devoutly."

Akron Beacon-Journal:—"It is devoutly to be hoped that the soft coal miners and operators may see their way clear to come to an agreement that will allow the operation of the bituminous miner until such time as the weight of public opinion shall intervene to decide the rights and wrongs of the dispute in the anthracite fields."

Factories Pinched.

Bridgeport Telegram:—"The coal situation is beginning to pinch the factories. The price of soft coal has advanced $2 a ton, with a prospect that it may go higher. If the price goes to soaring it is not unlikely there will be some shutdowns. The welfare of the country demands an early settlement of the differences between the miners and operators."

Without and Apology.

Pittsburg Dispatch:—"Anthracite operators say they are compelled to refuse any increase in wages because they don't want to raise the price to the consumer. But haven't there been occasions when no raise in wages was at stake and prices were raised to the consumer without even as much as an apology?"

Mr. Taft.

Baltimore Star:—"If Mr. Taft could find a way to make the operators and miners divide between themselves the cost of their differences, instead of foisting it upon the great third party who always heretofore has paid the bill, his re-election certain as it is, would be made unanimous."

High Cost of Living.

Springfield (Mass.) Union:—"The high cost of living has imposed a strain on families of moderate means, and a prolonged strike in the mines, involving the tying up of many industrial establishments would work untold hardship."

Serious Check.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat:—"While a coal strike would not inflict so much damage upon us as present the contest in England has precipitated on that country, it would, during the period of its progress, be a rather serious check to our industry."

Miners' Union.

New York Tribune:—"The Miners' union does not strengthen its claims to be recognized in the anthracite mining industry by its methods in the soft coal field."

Mediation.

Philadelphia Times:—"In introducing a bill to extend the operations of the Erdman act, so that it will provide for mediation in the anthracite field Representative Lee, of Tennessee, has indicated a real understanding of the benefits that law has already produced."

DR. WILEY'S RESIGNATION.

(Oil City Derrick.)

It is rumored that a combination of congressmen has steadily opposed Dr. Wiley, and is responsible for his resignation. That the whole truth of the trouble in the department of agriculture has not been made clear is certain, and it would be the proper thing for the people of those districts whose representatives are mixed up in the matter to do a little investigating on their own account. Dr. Wiley has been too faithful a servant of the people to be forced to step aside without the public wanting to know the cause of it. So far as the public is informed the feeling is that Dr. Wiley was forced to a resignation through being harassed for his activity in safeguarding the public health by his warfare on impure food products. It would therefore follow that the opposition had a sinister motive, and that the adulteration of food which has been almost stamped out, will again be a menace to the people. Those who cheapen foods to the detriment of the users are enemies of mankind, and it is on record that adulteration has been carried on to the extent not only of ill health, but actually to death of some of the victims of the unscrupulous and dishonest dealers through the use of acids and preservatives that were intended to swell their own profits at the expense of those they robbed of health, and even of life. That any one who sought to improve the wholesomeness of food should be marked as a victim by the destroyers of the people is too close to anarchy to be passed over without notice by the public. Dr. Wiley says he intends to devote his private life to the same work, and thus the people will not lose his services. There is one thing he could do which would be of public benefit, and that would be a full exposition of the conditions which have caused so much smoke in the department of agriculture, so far as he can, that the blame may be placed where it properly belongs. If the people know who their enemies are they can be on their guard.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

The county commissioners put off the final consideration of the question of freeing the gravel roads until June.

W. H. Hoffman, of this city, recently made a handsome money gift to Hanover college in aid of the education of young men for the ministry.

At the factory of Keller & Roth yesterday afternoon a scaffold fell and three men were painfully hurt—M. T. Connett, William Kienlein and William Vogeley.

Marriage licenses: George L. Pfeiffer and Althea L. Cartwright, John L. Smithers and Alice E. Fleming, Jeremiah Miller and Jennie Freidt, Frank A. Bean and Minnie B. Daniels, James W. Twoger and Jean T. Conner.

Henry Paul received a letter this morning from Emmett Powers, dated at Paris, stating that he had purchased some of the finest Percheron horses in France, and would start for home at once. Henry Paul and Thomas Ellison are interested with Mr. Powers in the Percheron horse business.

The Ligonier Leader says that among the railroad propositions under consideration is a road from Goshen to Fort Wayne to be called the Goshen and Fort Wayne Bee Line. It would be nearly a bee line and would take in the towns of Ligonier, Albion, Churubusco and then Fort Wayne.

Members of the Allen county bar met in the circuit court room this morning and paid tribute to the memory of Judge S. E. Sinclair. Judge Edward O'Rourke was chosen to preside, and in his remarks he was followed by Judge John Morris, Judge R. S. Taylor, Col. R. S. Robertson, Judge A. A. Chapin, Judge L. M. Ninde, W. P. Breen, H. C. Hanna, T. W. Wilson, W. J. Vesey, J. B. Harper, H. H. Robinson, P. A. Randall, S. R. Alden and F. F. Ninde.

Some of the property owners on Calhoun street are up in arms and no mistake about it. The council came near adopting the asphalt pavement Tuesday night, and some of the largest property owners are positively stating they will enjoin either the laying of asphalt, Telford or granite pavement on the grounds that they are unsuited, too costly and not demanded by the people who have to pay for them. The present block pavement on Calhoun street has served twelve years and it costs but $1 per square yard.

The Nederlandsche Staatscourant (The Hague) contains a decree providing a supplementary sum of 1,000,000 gulden (about $402,000) for constructing railways in South Sumatra.

ANOTHER HOSPITAL CASE YIELDS

Place—Good Samaritan's Hospital in Dawson City, Yukon Territory, Alaska.

Patient—G. A. Hatch, a business man of Dawson.

Prognosis—Hopeless, not only because physicians consider it so but the condition of the patient was so extreme that death was believed to be not far away.

A friend of Hatch's by the name of E. S. Strait, auctioneer of Dawson, heard about his plight and called upon him. Strait told Hatch that five years ago he was in the same fix and sent to California for Fulton's Diabetic Compound and recovered and to insure his health he keeps it on hand. He told Hatch that he would loan him some until more could be had from San Francisco. To the surprise of Dr. Cato, who has charge of the hospital, and the nurses, and his friends, Hatch made a recovery.

Instead of being in his grave as the Hospital authorities predicted four months later found him on a visit to his old home in Portland, Maine.

CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILDREN NEED GENTLE THOROUGH CASCARETS

Most of the ills of childhood are caused by a sour, disordered stomach, sluggish liver and constipated bowels. They catch cold easily, become cross, listless, irritable, feverish, restless, tongue coated, don't eat or sleep well and need a gentle, though thorough, physic—but don't try to force a nauseating dose of oil into the little one's already sick stomach—it is cruel, needless and old-fashioned.

Any child will gladly take Cascarets which act gently—never gripe or produce the slightest uneasiness—though cleanses the little one's system, sweetens the stomach and puts the liver and bowels in a pure, healthy condition.

Full directions for children and grown-ups in each package.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this gentle, thorough laxative which costs only 10 cents per box.

Dr. N. R. Wenger, Fort Wayne Physician, at 60 Years Old, Has Unusual Record.

"Yes, I'm 60 years old today," said Dr. N. R. Wenger in the course of a chat with The Sentinel. Pressed for a little more detail, Dr. Wenger's recital demonstrated that his record has been considerably out of the ordinary.

"I have practiced medicine for thirty-six years," said Dr. Wenger, "and I have never used tobacco or liquor, never played a game of cards, never danced, never swear, never prescribe opium, morphine or other narcotic, and never whisky or brandy. I have crossed the Atlantic ocean twice, the English channel, the Gulf of Mexico, the North sea, the Mediterranean sea six times, the Black sea, the Sea of Galilee, the Pacific ocean and I have taken a peep into the ocean in a glass-bottomed boat at the Marine gardens near Catalina islands.

"I have traveled through Germany, France, Italy, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Turkey in Europe, Turkey in Asia, Greece, Bulgaria, Servia, Egypt and the Upper Nile, Syria, England, Ireland and Scotland. I spent fifteen days on horseback through the Holy Land. I have visited Balbeck, Syria, to see the ruins of the Temple of the Sun; I have drank water out of Jacob's well in Palestine; I have been on top of and inside the Pyramids of Egypt. I have been in Old Mexico and seen a bull-fight, (will never look at another.) I have been through Canada on the Canadian Pacific and seen the grandest natural scenery in the world. I have seen glaciers in Canada and in Switzerland; have seen Niagara Falls, Mammoth cave, Adullam cave in Palestine; the grand canyon of Arizona; Yellowstone park and all the grand scenery in the Rocky mountains. I have been 13,000 feet below sea level (Dead sea in Palestine,) and 14,000 feet above sea level (Pike's Peak.) I have seen the ruins of the Temple of Diana; I have stood on Mars hill and I have been in the oldest city in the world—Damascus.

"And I never have been sued or arrested," concluded Dr. Wenger, and have never sued but one man."

Dr. Wenger will leave tomorrow on a trip to California.

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

BIG MEETING MAY COME HERE

Walther League Invited to Hold National Convention in This City.

TO BE HELD IN JULY

It is probable the national convention of the Walther League will be held this year at the Emmaus hall in this city. The place and time are determined by the national executive committee of the league.

At their meetings Sunday the Young Men's society and the Young Ladies' society of the Emmaus Lutheran church united in passing a resolution that an invitation be extended to the committee to hold the national meeting at the Emmaus hall. This invitation has been sent to the national executive committee.

The Walther League consists of seventy societies, located in all sections of the country, and the convention would bring here over 300 delegates. They would be the guests while in the city at the Lutheran homes. The annual conventions are usually held during the month of July.

SECOND COMING OF OUR LORD

MEETINGS CONTINUE

The services at the Grace Reformed church on Sunday were largely attended both in the morning and evening, the sermons being by Rev. Rufus C. Zartman, of Philadelphia, who has been here for a week assisting in the evangelistic meetings being held under the direction of his brother, Rev. A. K. Zartman, the pastor of the congregation. The theme last evening of the visiting divine, who is the pastor of the First Reformed church at Philadelphia, was "Death-Bed Repentance." In the morning his topic was "The Return of the Lord." His text was "I will come again and receive you unto myself." In speaking on it Dr. Zartman said in part:

"This text brings us face to face with the inspiring doctrine of the coming again of our Lord, commonly called the second advent of Christ, or perhaps better, the return of our Lord.

"The apostles of our Lord made great account of the promise of his second coming. They made their writings fragrant with this sweet hope. It is found in the farewell messages of them all:

"About the second coming of Christ there are many things we do not know, because they are not revealed to us. But there are certain things we do know, because they are revealed. It is of these I propose to speak.

"He will surely come. Jesus often made and repeated this promise. He set it fourth in parable and in many forms of speech. He will come unexpectedly. It will be a personal coming. It will be a visible coming. It will be an audible coming. His coming will be beneficent.

"Now when shall these things be? We do not know. The fact of His coming is revealed to every one, but the precise time of His advent is revealed to no one. We have no definite information by which to determine the precise time of His return.

"In view of the sure return of our Lord and the uncertainty of the time of his return there are some grave and solemn duties upon us, who profess his name.

We should love the promise and hope of His return. We should watch for His coming. We should pray and we should work. Prayer qualifies us for any duty and difficulty in life. Prayer helps us on the way and keeps bright our faith and strong our hope."

This evening Dr. Zartman will speak on the subject, "The Visitor at the Door" and tomorrow evening on "Get Right With God." Dr. Zartman is a most forcible and interesting speaker. Saturday night he delivered his illustrated lecture "A Visit to the Holy Land," using stereoptican views he secured during his trip abroad.

COW WITH A BANK ACCOUNT.

In Eight Years a Big Family's Surplus of Milk Sold for More Than $1,000.

Newton, Kas., March 25.—One of the best records made by an ordinary cow with no college education was made by an animal belonging to a Newton business man. This man made a deposit in the First National bank the other day bringing his "cow fund" up to $937. This included "milk money" and interest.

Eight years ago the business man and his wife, who had a family of six children, decided to save all the money paid them for milk and cream by neighbors who came to the house for the dairy products. They didn't solicit business nor deliver milk. They used the milk necessary for the family and sold the balance. The cow had a calf and this calf helped. She had another and then the old cow was sold and the second calf helped. They kept no account of the cost of the feed, because they consider that it was offset by the milk and cream furnished the family. The feed in the winter was alfalfa hay, chops and bran. Besides the money in the bank, some was spent from the fund to give one of the girls music lessons, otherwise the fund would have been more than $1,000.

District Results.

The vote throughout the Twelfth district gives Roosevelt 76 out of a total of 88 delegates. The county votes follow:

County.	Roosevelt.	Taft.
Allen	22	9
Dekalb	11½	1½
Lagrange	9	0
Noble	14	1
Steuben	11	0
Whitley	8	2
Totals	76½	13½

Several Solid.

Throughout the district a number of counties voted solid for Roosevelt delegates. In Lagrange county the Roosevelt republicans were directed in their work by Louis N. Litman, chairman of the district Roosevelt boom, and aside from the nine delegates elected for the Indianapolis meeting, nine delegates were selected for the joint representative convention at Lagrange on May 9 for the purpose of selecting a candidate for state representative from Lagrange county. Maurice McClew, of Angola, present state representative, was at the meeting and delivered a brief address. A resolution was offered by ex-Congressman C. C. Gilhams indorsing Mr. McClew for another term and the resolution passed by unanimous vote.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Litman instructed the convention to vote for no delegate who would not support Roosevelt. Ex-Congressman Gilhams was against the adoption of the resolution, as were a few others, but the matter was put to a vote and carried by 242 to 58, showing the force of Roosevelt sentiment in the county. The convention then separated into townships and elected nine Roosevelt delegates, as follows:

Fred Price, William Herinden, R. W. Miller, Henry Taylor, S. O. Notestine, Willard Switzer, E. F. Seagley, James Kline and J. Norman Babcock; alternates—Frank E. Lee, Louis N. Litman, Fayette Woodworth, G. F. Eshelman, John McGraw, Ross Scott, John Austin, Hewitt Davis, A. Hostetler.

For joint representative—C. C. Gilhams, S. K. Ganiard, Frank Olmstead, R. J. Vandrew, Harvey Plank, Raymond Helper, Ora Newman, Charles Crampton and R. L. Thompson.

"Teddy" Gets Whitley.

Out of a total of ten, only two Taft delegates were elected in Whitley county at the elections Friday and Saturday. The delegates selected are as follows:

Thornercek township, Roosevelt, S. E. Geiner; Smith township, Taft, George W. Kichler; Richland township, Taft, W. S. Smith; Union township, Roosevelt, W. C. Glass; Cleveland township, Roosevelt, Charles H. Jewett; Troy township, Roosevelt, Frank Gruesbeck; Etna township, Roosevelt, Fred Hunt; Washington township, Roosevelt, S. P. Johnson; Jefferson township, Roosevelt, H. L. Plummer; Columbia township, Roosevelt man was elected at Friday's primaries in the city of Columbia City.

In Cleveland township neither man expressed whom he intended to support, so a vote of 19 to 17 instructed Jewett to vote for Roosevelt.

All for Roosevelt.

Other counties throughout the district are all strong for Roosevelt, and the voters were not slow in getting to the polls to cast their ballots for the ex-president's delegates. From Kendallville, Noble county, comes the report that the Roosevelt forces made a big demonstration. The city hall was filled to capacity and five hundred tickets were given out. There was but one Taft adherent selected in the county, Allen township electing Wier D. Carver as delegate and Eugene Iddings as alternate. Other township elections resulted as follows: Elkhart township, Henry Klatz, delegate, Gideon Cobb, alternate; Sparta township, D. L. Campbell, delegate, C. P. Baker, alternate; Perry township, (Ligonier), Jesse L. Dunnings and Graham Ryan, delegates, W. H. Baker and Andrew Miller, alternates; Green township, Daniel Grumlich, delegate, Thomas Budd, alternate; Jefferson township, Wilson Hines, delegate, W. Jacquay alternate; Orange township, John Schermerhorn, delegate, C. C. Harris, alternate; Swan township, A. L. Hinley, delegate, Martin Alt, alternate; York township, E. E. Huston, delegate, John W. DeKalb County Split.

In DeKalb county the Roosevelt boomers succeeded in electing 12½ delegates and the Taft 1½, the vote having been compromised in one of the townships. Out of 146 votes at Pleasant Lake, Charles Vaugh, a Roosevelt adherent, was elected by 131. Marion Sparks was elected in Salem township. He is also a Roosevelt supporter. At Hamilton and Fremont, Roosevelt delegates were unanimously elected. Waterloo and Butler, DeKalb county, both went strong for "Teddy." J. L. Waterman, of Grant township, George Parks in Blissfield township, and Dr. Frank Fanning, of Wilmington township having been elected by the Roosevelt voters.

A report comes from DeKalb county that John Blower, who was elected by an almost unanimous Roosevelt vote in one of the townships, give his proxy to Isaac Zent, postmaster, who is a Taft man, on account of a factional scrap in the township. DeKalb people are indignant because they declare this township is being misrepresented.

meet any sudden increase in the demands for transportation."

Advance Which Did Not Come.

The railroads point out that the wage advance to the engineers and other employes since 1910 was made in expectation of a "much needed" advance in freight rates which the inter-state commerce commission declined to allow. Since that period, they say, enforced reductions of rates have been more or less continuous and other rate reductions are pending.

The railroads declare that the fixing of a standard wage for the conductors and trainmen was the result of a crisis developed in connection with their demands and should not be taken as a precedent.

"There are many inconsistencies in a standard wage. It must be apparent that all railroads are not equally able to pay a standard rate. * * * * The reduction of the net revenues by the constantly increasing expenses of operation have so narrowed the margin which is essential to the solvent existence of many of the roads that further increases in operation costs are viewed with grave concern."

Figures are presented to show that while the gross earnings of the roads concerned increased $18,359,659 in 1911, there was a decrease in net earnings of $27,650,200, and while 8,197 less men were employed the total wages increased $39,416,802. The reply concludes:

Stone Makes No Prediction.

"This headlong movement towards financial disaster cannot proceed unchecked. In view, therefore, of the fact that the present rate of wages are as a rule full and liberal and the railroads, as explained above, are financially unable to bear the increased expense involved, it is impossible to grant the request which you have submitted."

The reply is signed by the conference committee of managers, J. C. Stuart, chairman.

Grand Chief Stone, when told just before the meeting of the railroad men that the demands of the engineers had been refused, and asked what the engineers would do, said he had no predictions to make.

MUSIC MAY BE USED.

Youthful Criminals May be Reformed by Novel Methods.

New York, March 25.—Patrick A. Whitney, commissioner of corrections, has decided that music should have a large part in the work of reforming youthful criminals, and he has accordingly directed the employment of a teacher of instrumental music at the city reformatory on Hart's Island. His order to this effect is endorsed by the aldermen in a resolution which says:

"Music is extremely beneficial in the general scheme of social reform, for which this institution is established and is necessary as a part of the special reform work there. Furthermore, beginners may practice on an island to their hearts' desire and annoy no one but themselves."

Commissioner Whitney will offer the convicts an "optical course" of eighty instrumental music lessons this spring.

A delightful change in the order of parties of a pre-nuptial character was given on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Paul, by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Eberbach, in honor of Misses Hestor Bash and Alice Worden. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowerfind and Mr. and Mrs. Haberly assisted the host and hostesses in receiving the company. The entertainment was an amateur vaudeville performance and aside from Mr. and Mrs. Eberbach, Miss Linda McKinnie, Gerald McKinnie and Dr. Miles F. Porter, jr., were the entertainers, with Mrs. Bowerfind and Master Fleming McKinnie as the orchestra. There were programs as funny of announcement as the various stunts of the performers. The dining room of the Paul home was the stage and seats were arranged so the guests could witness the various burlesques on familiar acts seen in the city. It was as jolly a party as any one could wish. After the entertainment a supper was served with elegant and beautiful appointments. Yellow, pink and white were the colors employed and were expressed in jonquils, marguerites, sweetpeas, alliums which filled baskets and vases and yellow beaded shades to the lights. Miss Bash and Miss Worden found tall handled baskets filled with spring flowers and tied with big bows of tulle at their places. White baskets held the ice cream and orange blossoms decorated the baskets. The two bridegrooms to be, Dr. Porter, jr., and Gex Conduit also received dainty gifts. There were twenty-five guests and they included besides Mr. Conduit, of Gary, Miss Maguire, of Richmond, Thomas Cooke, of Whiting and Harold Baxter, of Chicago.

Dorcas Society, One of Oldest Church Organizations in City, Gives Large Reception.

MRS. A. L. GRIEBEL.
For Twenty-Five Years President of Dorcas Society.

Few, if any church organizations of women in the city are better known than the Dorcas society of the Trinity English Lutheran church. The Dorcas ladies have long been famous for their suppers and for their annual bazar held always during holiday week. It has been too a society of remarkably agreeable companionship, with seldom anything to mar the smoothness of its working during thirty years of existence.

The recent reception given by the society for its president of twenty-five years' standing, Mrs. A. L. Griebel, was attended by many people not connected with the church. Mrs. Griebel's individual circle of friends is large and the friends of the Dorcas are also many, so that the reception rooms were crowded during the time.

Mrs. Lana Evans, secretary and treasurer of the Dorcas, read a brief account of the history of the organization so far as is possible to obtain facts. "No record of its earliest history had been kept and until 1882 there was no permanent organization," said Mrs. Evans, "but the ladies of the church met each week at the various houses as a church society. For a number of years prior to 1882 meetings of the Dorcas were held at the home of Mrs. John G. Maier but after her death, which occurred that year, a permanent society was organized. The society was named the Dorcas society of Trinity English Lutheran church by the first president, Mrs. Conger. Mrs. Griebel was elected vice president at that time. The object of the society was to aid the orphans at Zel, Pa., and to do charitable work generally. For a time the meetings were held at the parsonage but when the addition to the church of the rooms used now for Sunday school and for social purposes were built the meetings were held there and have continued to be.

For five years Mrs. Conger and Mrs. Griebel were re-elected president and vice president, then as the demise of Mrs. Conger occurred, Mrs. Griebel was at once elected president. To her direction, energy and great interest has been due in a great measure the success of the society. She has always willingly accepted any work assigned to her and has carefully watched over the interests of the society and has retained the love and friendship of each member. In 1888 Mrs. Diedrich Meyer was elected chairman and treasurer of the social committee and she continued to act in that office until 1901. Mrs. George Swaine succeeded Mrs. Meyer and has filled the office ever since then. Other officers of the Dorcas have been Miss Emma Edzold, secretary and treasurer from 1904 to 1908. At present the officers of the society in addition to Mrs. Griebel are Mrs. P. B. Colerick, first vice president, Mrs. Theodore Wentz, second vice president, Mrs. Lana Hoffman Evans, secretary and treasurer.

Each Christmas a box of clothing toys and money has been sent to the Orphans' home at Zel, Pa. A room is maintained at the Lutheran hospital of this city, and another at the Chicago Theological seminary. Donations are made each year for the support of the seminary and various local charities. Since the organization of the society death has claimed twelve of its members. Today the Dorcas numbers ninety-six members, of whom a dozen ladies are charter members."

"Puritan" Flour makes the largest and whitest loaf of Bread.

A minute fly was responsible recently for the calling of a special session of the California legislature. This insect is the Mediterranean fruit fly, and California's magnificent fruit industry, which last year brought in $125,000,000, is threatened by its introduction from Hawaii, where it has proved very destructive. The legislature, on the advice of Prof. A. J. Cook, state horticultural commissioner, adopted measures which it is hoped will keep out the pest.

There is abundant evidence, in the opinion of Penck, that man existed during the beginning of the last glacial epoch. There is some reason for thinking that at least 20,000 years have elapsed since the last glaciation, and that the man whose jawbone was found in 1909 near Heidelberg lived 200,000 years ago.

"Puritan" Flour best for Bread and Pastry.

GOOD LOOKING INEXPENSIVE FROCK

By Mrs. Jean Ford.

FOR the woman who wants a good looking, all around dress, nothing could be more practical than the model pictured. The waist is cut in one with the sleeves, which is a great boon to the home dressmaker, because it will not require fitting other than a little adjusting at the waist line. The pattern provides for the well liked soft turn down collar, or the neck may be finished in Dutch fashion. The skirt is a plain gored model, and as easy to complete as the waist. When the dress is developed in cloth or silk, the actual opening need only extend a few inches below the waist line, although it should be simulated the full length of the garment. If tub material is used, it will be better to let the opening extend the full length.

Plain colored cloths, cashmeres, serges and linens are exceedingly smart made in this style and trimmed with cuffs and collar or with cuffs and yoke band of a contrasting color. This season brown trimmed with green is specially well liked, and bids fair to become very popular. Among the smart tub frocks shown in exclusive shops are plain linens trimmed with bands of plaid ginghams, worked with a cross stitch design. Material covered buttons are also much used, but flat pearl are always good.

To copy this dress for the average person it requires about five and three-eighths yards of thirty-six inch goods.

SALOON MEN ASK FOR JURY TRIAL

Otto Neuman and George Beberstein Also Seek Another Judge.

Otto Neuman, charged with allowing minors to loiter in his saloon, and George Beberstein, his bartender, accused of the same offense, asked for and were granted jury trials in the city court, and their cases were fixed for hearing on Thursday.

They also asked for a change of venue, from Judge Frank Mungovan and he named Attorney William C. Geake to preside at the trial. A new affidavit was filed against Neuman by Alpha Bainbridge, who charges that he allowed Elgie Butterfield, a minor, to loiter in the saloon which is located in Bloomingdale.

Rewarded His Sister.

Harry Sherman rewarded a sister who had kept him all winter by throwing a couple of bricks through one of the windows of her dressmaking establishment on West Main street, and he got a fine of $14 and costs and a jail sentence of thirty days.

The sister is crippled and asked him to get out of a room while she fitted a couple of dresses on two of her customers. This he objected to and got even by throwing the bricks.

The Other Cases.

Helen and Anna Roesner, two girls who came here from Kendallville and were picked up for loitering, were given thirty days each. They said they could not get along with their stepmother but agreed to go back and try it when they were told they could do that or serve their time.

Louis McKroy struck Patrolman Harris, who made some inquiry about his presence in a stairway on South Calhoun street and he got $25 and costs.

Gertie North and May Christman, well known police characters, got thirty days and $5 and costs each. They were found in the North woman's rooms on Pioneer avenue with two men. The men gave assumed names and were fined $10 and costs each. They did not appear.

Two vags were held until Tuesday on the report that they had accosted two little girls on the street Sunday morning. They denied it and the girls will be brought in to identify them.

James Hannan bought a quart of whisky Saturday night and got drunk enough yesterday to tell Patrolman Spillner he thought he was no good. He drew $5 and costs.

Architect Charles R. Weatherhogg has received the contract for plans for a new public school building at Wolcottville, Ind., which will cost $10,000. The new school is to be erected during the coming summer.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive, and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

THERE IS A REAL FASCINATION IN WEARING A GOOD CORSET

One can see the dress, but can only sense the Corset, and it makes the figure.

TO HAVE THE LINES THAT ARE SUITED TO THE SEASON FASHIONS, ONE MUST HAVE THE RIGHT CORSET.

Let us show you the Redfern—you no doubt have heard of them and thought because they were "Genuinely Whaleboned" that you could not afford a Redfern. You can—they cost from $3.00 only to $10.00 per pair and are actually better than the "custom-made" garments that cost twice as much—the latest Redfern models have low tops and very long skirts, but they are flexibly whaleboned—stripped into a wonderfully strong, pliant fabric—almost chiffon cloth in weave—so exquisite a quality.

A Redfern for the best dressed women everywhere.

Robert Merchant Sues to Recover $10,000 from Jacob Weaver.

JURY HEARING CASE

In the circuit court today before a jury the damage suit for $10,000 instituted by Robert Merchant, as administrator of the estate of his dead wife, Elmira J. Merchant, against Jacob Weaver, was placed on trial.

It was brought here on a change of venue from Huntington county. It is alleged in the complaint that Weaver's automobile scared a horse that Mrs. Merchant was driving, that it ran away and injured her so that she died from the effects. The injury was inflicted in May, 1910, and Mrs. Merchant passed away in February, 1911.

It is charged that Weaver paid no attention to signals and failed to stop his machine, which he was running at a rate of twenty-five miles an hour.

Motion is Overruled.

A motion for a new trial of the suit of Belle Grady against Dr. Charles H. Eckert was overruled in the superior court today and judgment was entered on the jury's verdict of $150. She stated in her complaint that Eckert had beaten her.

NEW CONDITIONS IN BASKETBALL

Present Series Will Not Satisfactorily Settle the City Title.

CONCORDIA WON OUT

New conditions will have to pertain in the next game of the city basketball championship series if the question of supremacy is to be satisfactorily settled between St. Mary's Athletic club and Concordia college.

So long as a partisan referee and umpire preside neither team will win on its merits. No official connected in any way with either of the clubs can free his mind entirely of loyalty to his own team and prejudice against the other, and while there is a chance to even up by placing one in command in one period and changing in the next this does not satisfy the public and the public is paying its good money to see the games.

If the terms of the contract under which the clubs are playing could be so changed that in the next game a portion of the receipts could be expended in securing the services of two men fully acquainted with the rules and entirely unbiased less wrangling would result and cleaner and better play would certainly follow.

There is little doubt in the minds of people who witnessed the first conflict at Concordia college Saturday night that the students would have won under a set of unprejudiced officials. Their team play was superior, as is indicated by the score of forty to fourteen, but there was too much penalizing and too many free throws.

The collegians demonstrated that they were carefully trained, that they have perfected systems of offensive and defensive play that puzzled the Saints and kept them defending their own basket so much of the time that they had little opportunity to carry the ball into the enemy's territory and get scores.

A great handicap imposed upon the St. Mary's squad was that they are used to playing on a brilliantly lighted floor and the darkness and shadows at the college gymnasium were confusing. However, diametrically opposite conditions at Odeon Hall next Friday night when the second game is scheduled may prove just as disastrous to the college lads.

If there were a possibility of playing a full series under entirely neutral surroundings the outcome would be more satisfying. In any event it is bound to be interesting, as both clubs have big followings and plenty of good rooters behind them.

The presence of 900 people at the game on Saturday night shows the great interest that exists among the patrons of the sport, and it also proves that some changes are needed to eliminate an element of favoritelsm that is bound to exist so long as partisan officials are employed.

A dozen goals were scored on free throws and as many were missed and this is too many. Strict adherence to the rules is possibly necessary to prevent holding and slugging, but if the rules were applied by an umpire or a referee entirely disinterested there could be no criticism at the close of the series.

In the final period the Saints switched their line-up and it worked better against the victors, but the losers were so hopelessly beaten that there was little chance to overcome the lead taken by the students. The line-up and score:

Concordia (40).	St. Mary's (14).
Wambsganss	F. Peil
Claus	F. Hoffman-Haffner
Schabacher	C. E. Jockel
Dau	G. Haffner-Hoffman
Bode	G. Eckrich-E. Jockel

Field Goals—Wambsganss 4, Claus 8, Schabacher 1, Dau 1, Bode 2, Peil 1, Hoffman 2, E. Jockel 1, Haffner 1.

Goals on Free Throws—Bode 8, Peil 4.

Referee—Stein.

Umpire—Lauer.

THE REAL SIGN OF SPRING

(New York Telegram.)

According to the almanac
Sweet spring is here at last.
With wintry chills and kindred ills
All over with and past:
But just as we begin to sing
Of zephers soft and low.
Behold! a blizzard comes along
With half a foot of snow.

According to the almanac
The balmy air is here.
With doctor's bills and quinine pills
Forsworn until next year:
But though 'tis not in season
We ask you, isn't it true
That every other friend you meet
Will greet you thus, "Kerchoo?"

According to the almanac
It's fishing time once more,
And verdant hills and sparkling rills
Invite us as of yore:
But jog up to the "dear old home"—
Where are those verdant hills?
Four feet of snow—alas, 'tis so—
And ice bound all the rills.

According to the almanac
Broadway is all in bloom,
With Jacks and Jills, in fine spring frills,
And straw hats on the boom.
But as for us we'll not believe
That spring has come at all
Until we hear that certain proof—
The umpire's yell, "Play ball!"

REPORTING TIME POSTPONED WEEK

Park in Bad Shape and No Available Ground or Gymnasium.

CENTRAL IN PLIGHT

Reporting time, fixed by Owner Claude H. Varnell on April 1, has had a serious setback and only a few of the athletes who will be whipped into local hopes will report here for practice next week, as originally scheduled.

Manager Frank J. Shaughnessy, Bill Clancy, first lieutenant and first baseman, and the pitchers and catchers will be here on Monday. They must have some work, according to Mr. Varnell's notion of the fitness of things, and he says they will be worked out some place even if they have to confine themselves to an alley.

The owner has just returned from West Baden, where he and Mrs. Varnell spent a couple of weeks, and he will be here Sunday or Monday morning of next week to get things going.

One O. Boreas, who is evidently pulling a dog in the manger stunt because his fancy does not run to succulent young onions, base hits, blue birds and try-out squads, has hung around and with some timely aid from Old Sol and J. Pluvius has converted the ball yard into a skating rink.

Some rain, some thawing, some snow and then a freeze did the dirt. The water rose until it had nearly submerged the players' benches and when the weather turned cold it followed the bent of all open air water of sedentary habits and froze over good and thick.

Not less than a week of warm weather will permit the use of the lot. The water backed into the big hollow south of the bleachers and inundated the low places in the southeast corner of the lot where some five or six feet of water is still standing. There will be no chance for it to take the ice out with it and this must settle and melt and by the time all of these changes have taken place it will require some rapid-fire manicuring on the part of Jack Raidy to get the battle ground into any sort of playing shape.

With these conditions pertaining there is no use to have all the players report here, as they have no place to work and are just as well off by their own firesides. Concordia gymnasium is not available because a new cement floor is to be laid and the contractor is on hand with his machinery and material to do the work. There is no other gym in the city that is large enough to be of any service to the club and if all the men should blow in at the time originally set upon they would have nothing to do until the park is in shape.

Mr. Varnell is a bit more fortunate than other owners in the league. He has no exhibition games booked and will not be compelled to have some of his men on hand to play whether they are fit or not. A number of the Central league owners have booked exhibitions of this kind and they are wondering now how they will ever be able to fulfil their engagements.

WILL "JOHNNY" M'GRAW KEEP GROH AND STOCK?

STOCK, GIANT COLT

Speculation as to Disposition of Two Young Players Now Training at Marlin.

With the beginning of the breaking up of the team of colts assembled at Marlin, which was sure to result, the youngsters are looking forward philosophically to the future.

The disposition of Groh and Stock will call for consideration. It is just possible that one or both of them will be claimed by a major league club if any effort is made to send them from New York. It is said that the St. Louis National League club is not averse to taking Groh for utility infielder, and if McGraw should try to place him in Buffalo St. Louis might step in and block the deal. Of course, that is perfectly legitimate under the rules, but New York would lose all claim to him if he should go to St. Louis.

DOZEN PITCHERS FOR SOUTH BEND

Four Men to Try Out for the Job Behind the Bat for Arndt.

HAVE FEW UNKNOWNS

South Bend, Ind., March 25.—The South Bend pitching staff now numbers in its ranks twelve players, independents, collegians and leaguers, youngsters and veterans, and they'll be in on the heels of the real spring, too.

Backstops, including in their midst, independent and college exponents of the national pastime, at least four, will also report for an early round with Manager Harry Arndt, who wants to know as soon as possible what these unknowns can do, for few of them have more than recommendations to earn them trials with the Greens, and must show real ability to earn their board. This uncertainty, however, regarding the playing worth of the battery members strikes a responsive chord in every fan's heart, which warms to the youngster who promises development. They will follow the work of the candidates for the "people's team" with the closest attention, and the process of weeding out unlikely material will be followed with great interest.

Among the pitchers are two collegians, A. Prosser, who established a great record in the east as a member of the Columbia university nine, and H. S. Peterson, University of Michigan. E. J. Daly, a product of Schnectady, N. Y., who has had experience in three leagues, according to information gathered by the baseball club, was injured and forced to undergo an operation. It is possible he will not be able to report until after the first of the season.

Since the first announcement of the roster by the Baseball association, several players have been added, including one catcher and one hurler. The latter is Leonard Madden, and the musk and big glove man, Stroh. The management has through its inquiries into the records of its men secured the following general facts about the batteries:

E. J. Daly—Southern, New York State and New England league experience. No record for last year.

Leonard Madden—Aurora, Wisconsin-Illinois league last year. Owned by Brooklyn. Secured by optional purchase.

Joe Phelan—New York State league, with Albany in 1911. Played in too few games to break into records.

Ira Plank—Eastern, New York State and New England league experience.

A. P. Owens—Old timer. Owens is believed to retain some fair share of his old time skill. He has played in many leagues. Will be valuable through training season for development of youngsters.

A. Prosser—University of Columbia.

H. S. Peterson—University of Michigan.

William Wooley—Of Syracuse, N. Y. Recommended by G. Geer, sporting editor Syracuse newspaper. Highly touted.

Newton Jockie—Reported to be one of the best young pitchers developed in the vicinity of Buffalo, N. Y., in years.

M. E. Coffey—Recommended by Hank O'Day, manager of Cincinnati Reds.

George Kaiserling—With Champaign-Urbana club of Wisconsin-Illinois league in 1911.

Al Pfyl—From St. Louis. John McNulty, American association umpire, tells friend, Arndt, hurler is a comer. Six feet one inch in height.

Catchers.

George Stroh—Recommended by George Geer. League experience. In Tri-State last year.

Earl Harris—Of Indianapolis. Recommended by Charley French, ex-Eva second sacker, and with Chicago White Sox at one time.

John Wernke—Boosted by Pitcher Benz of the Chicago White Sox.

Davidson—Graduate of University of Alabama. Recommended by Hugh Shannon, old-time player, manager and umpire who is doing scouting duty for minor league clubs.

ALL HIS GLORY OF THE PAST

Actor Who Has Once Lost Favor of the Fickle Public Seldom Able to Regain It.

He was gaunt and drawn, a striking contrast to the rather heavy face, the confident air, and the swagger, which had extended even to the buttons on his coat but a few years ago. At that time ranting melodrama was a popular art, the star an elaborately built piece of mechanism, and this man the star's chief support.

His fate was a common one, dramatically emphasized by his outward appearance. Like a dilapidated sign flapping in the wind, his threadbare "prop" frock coat told the tale of former glory, while the resignation that poured in a flood light of despair from his moist eyes attested that that glory would never be renewed.

Like the old profile engine which was wont to thrill the gallery with its factitious bombast, and which now rotted, forgotten in the storeroom, this poor human, whose art at its best had been but a "profile" one, was forgotten and wasting, waiting like the other to be swept out in the great mass of uselessness, his ephemeral mission ended, his purgatory, nature's storeroom, a waiting room of poverty and despair, lightened by a rapidly fading ray of memories—memories of a short-lived lime-light popularity.

PLAYERS ARRIVE READY FOR WORK

Dayton Advance Guard Will Do Preliminary Training Inside.

TIEMAN IS STILL OUT

Dayton, O., March 25.—The advance guard of the Vets of 1912 arrived in Dayton today to find the ground covered with snow and absolutely no chance to do outside work unless Manager Knoll makes them do a little road work to get their wind in shape.

Every Vet player has attached his name to a Dayton contract but four—Pitcher Olmstead, Outfielder DeHaven, Second Baseman Benson and Catcher Tieman. Of this number DeHaven and Benson will doubtlessly sign their contracts when they report. As to Olmstead and Tieman, they have been placed on the ineligible list by the Dayton management for their failure to sign up.

Olmstead was picked up off the lots last season by the Vets and worked in a few games for Knoll's team. He was sent a contract some time ago, and wrote back saying that the figures on it did not appeal to him, and he would not affix his signature unless they were boosted. He was informed that he could either sign the contract or be placed on the ineligible list, and as he failed to heed the warning the above action was taken.

Tieman was offered a good salary by the Vets, but it did not suit him, and he informed the management that he would require more money to work in a Dayton uniform this season. President Redelle said that he did not think that Tieman was worth the salary he was holding out for, and it was decided to place him on the ineligible list.

Manager Knoll will have Mike Konnick, Barton, the Canadian leaguer, and Fred Armstrong out to fight for jobs behind the plate, and if any one of the last three named develops, Tieman will not be missed.

Just one week from today the Vets will play their first game of the season at Highland park with Topsy Hartsell's Toledo Mud Hens; that is, providing the weather man does the right thing this week. The contractors claim that with good weather they can have the park in shape for the game. In case adverse weather conditions should stop the contractors from completing their work, the Vet management will probably be forced to call off the game.

Manager Knoll received a letter from Elmer Benson, the second sacker of the Vets, Saturday, stating that he would be on hand reporting day to get ready for the coming season.

CHAMPS DID NOT HAVE THE MONEY

So They Climbed Through the Transom and Saw Prize Fight.

NOLAN TELLS STORY

Chicago, Ill., March 26.—Billy Nolan, who won fame as Battling Nelson's manager, tells a new story of Jack Johnson's early days, when he was a half-starved negro trying to pick up "eatin' money" around San Francisco.

"It seems that the night Jim Jeffries fought the late Gus Ruhlin in San Francisco there were four young fellows who couldn't raise the price of tickets and tried to mooch their way in. They sneaked into the building during the afternoon through a transom and crowded in under the raised platform, there to lay in the dust until the fighting began and they could come out and lose themselves in the crowd.

"Each one of the four moochers turned out to be a great star of pugilism. They were Harry Foley, Eddie Hanlon, Abe Attell and the last was Jack Johnson.

"They hung there all afternoon, but toward dinner time got so hungry they couldn't stand it any longer and sneaked out for a sandwich.

"After a preliminary scout Attell crawled up through the transom, followed by Harry Foley and Eddie Hanlon. Johnson was just wriggling through when a policeman came around the corner, Jack dropped down almost in his arms.

"'Here, what are you doing?' demanded the policeman, grabbing him.

"'Oh, Mistah Officer, chase them boys quick. Ah's the janitor of this hyah pavilion, and they done sneaked in through the transom. Ah's been chasin' all ovah the building. Hurry or you won't ketch 'um.'

"The policeman dropped Johnson's arm and chased wildly off down the street after Hanlon, Foley and Attell. After a while they all sneaked back in through the transom, crawled under the platform and saw the fight. When Jeffries was coming down the aisle just before the fight started Jack Johnson nudged Attell, who lay in the dust next to him, and said: 'Ah could lick that fellow my own self.'

"'Be still, you dingie,' said his neighbor.

"'Well, some day I'll lick him,' said Johnson. And one day he sure did."

ONLY TRUST IN JOPLIN BUSTED

"Snitches" Found Competition Costly and Combined But—

DID NOT PROTECT

Joplin, Mo., March 25.—Joplin's one and only "trust"—a beneficent combination to which certain Joplinites were beginning to "point with pride"—has failed. While the newspapers teem with stories of trusts that are almost dissolved and corporations that are nearly outlawed, it's seldom that one is resolved into its component parts—or, as this one was, smashed into smithereens.

They called it the Snitch Lawyers' trust. It wasn't incorporated; it wasn't chartered; it didn't exactly have a corner on anything—it just had a nice fence around it, horsehigh and hogtight. It was a very real trust—until a few days ago.

It was composed of lawyers the bulk of whose practice was secured by racing with the ambulance to the scene of mine accidents in this section—the ambulance speeding on its errand of mercy, to relieve suffering and minister to the injured; the "snitch" chasing to coin the tragedy into fees for himself. Generally there were several "snitches" in the race, and generally the one that got there first got the "case" and whatever money he could make out of it.

That's the way it used to be before the days of the "snitch trust," and that's the way it probably will be henceforth. But for a few weeks things were different, and all Joplin is laughing at the episode that terminated the reign of the trust. It all happened like this:

One of the "snitches" who says that snitching is legitimate and decent, and doesn't care who knows it, got to figuring that his business had fallen off since the hospital and undertaking establishments bought motor ambulances. The motors beat the "snitches" to the scene of the accidents, and the victims were whisked away before the "snitches" got a chance at them.

The situation called for decisive action. It was explained to one who was familiarly known as the "king of the snitches," and his resourceful brain quickly suggested a remedy. He planned to get all the "snitches" together, draw up a "gentlemen's agreement," put them all on a common footing, and incidentally do away with the unseemly haste that was so odious to ultra-particular people.

So they met to form the "Snitches' Protective association," commonly known as the "snitch trust." When they were nicely convened they talked it over as man to man. They had read some newspaper articles that were not calculated to raise their drooping spirits—articles explaining their methods in disquieting detail. In these articles much stress was laid on the fact that they always seemed in a hurry to get to the victim of an accident, or to his family.

And the discussion fructified in the formation of the "snitch trust." The restraints imposed by the agreement were entirely "reasonable," so as not to conflict with the supreme court's interpretation of the Sherman act. Every "snitch" agreed never again to make the "grand run," nor to allow his representative to burn up the roads to get to accident victims, and get there first. Each one bound himself to secure a formal introduction to the injured before broaching the object of his visit, and to observe all the social amenities, even to the extent of waiting until the injured party recovered consciousness before casually mentioning his beneficent mission. In short, competition, while not eliminated, was to be put upon a high and moral basis.

How It Failed.

Most of the "snitches" religiously lived up to the agreement. But barely a month had passed before it was noticed that nearly all the "cases" were going to a certain two. Somehow, nearly all the damage suits were filed by one or the other of the pair. The others didn't say much, but they did some rapid thinking, and a few days ago when a report came in of an accident at a mine a few miles from the city, decided to act.

So they chartered the fastest taxi in town and told the pilot they'd put him in the way of getting rich as ambulance chaser if he would clip two minutes off the record of the Porto Rico run.

He did.

And what they saw when they got there nearly caused them strokes of apoplexy. There, kneeling on the ground, was the representative of the "snitch" who had proposed the trust. With one arm he was supporting a miner, groaning and bleeding and just returning to consciousness; the other arm gesticulating as he eloquently described the beauties and advantages of the particular brand of damage suit handled by his employer; and in front of him lay a contract, ready for the injured man to sign the moment his waxy fingers could grasp a pen.

That was all.

Before sundown the "snitch trust" had resolved itself into its integral parts without the process of law or benefit of clergy.

You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but by what he has done. That is the only true test. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judged by this standard has no superior. People everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. For sale by all dealers.

Leesburg, Ind., March 25.—The town council has passed an ordinance increasing the salary of Marshal Dullinger to $75 a year. The job formerly paid only $25, but Dullinger refused to take the place for that. Joel Wilkinson, who resigned, made one arrest in all the seven years he held the office. Dullinger has issued a notice to the people through the newspapers informing them that hereafter all violations of the law will be prosecuted and that blind tigers will no longer be tolerated.

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

Don't Neglect a Cold, Ely's Cream Balm Will Stop It in the Sneezing Stage.

A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this pure, antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless.

STOLE HER BABY TO BURY IT.

Fearing Grave in Potter's Field, Girl Broke Into a Morgue.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 25.—To save her adopted baby from a burial in the potter's field, Daisy Howlett, the 19-year-old wife of Fred Howlett, having no money and no friends to help, broke into the undertaking rooms and carried off the body.

The young woman, who was deserted by her husband a little over a month ago, when he went to Fort Worth, Tex., has been in straightened circumstances. When the baby died a few days ago she gave the little body into the care of an undertaking establishment to have it buried. The undertakers found that the young woman was without funds and she was then told the body would be wrapped in a cloth and laid in the potter's field.

This was more than the girl wife could stand. She had no one to turn to or appeal to. The baby was not her own, but had been adopted by her to appease her husband, who, she says, was sorely disappointed because they had no children of their own.

Having failed to move the undertaker's heart by her pleas and promises to pay at a later date, she went to the morgue at night and carried off the body. She then took it to another undertaker, who was willing to take the risk of being paid rather than break the unfortunate young woman's heart.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by all dealers.

WAR WAGES AFTER 47 YEARS.

William J. Buchanan Receives $180.94 on an Old Claim.

Kansas City Kan., March 25.—The government may take a long time in settling up some of its accounts, but finally it pays to the last cent. William J. Buchan, of this city, formerly a state senator, cites as proof of that the contents of an official envelope he recently received from the treasury department in Washington. The envelope contained a government voucher for $180.94, which has been due Senator Buchan since the civil war as back pay for his service in the union army.

When Senator Buchan was mustered out after the war he fancied he had been paid all that was coming to him. More than forty years elapsed, and then a friend in Washington wrote and told him that, according to the army books, he still was entitled to some back pay. Senator Buchan made a formal application for the amount. He heard nothing from it for more than a year, and then the money arrived.

With the voucher was a statement showing exactly what the claim was allowed for. He was allowed two bounties—one for $100 and another for $50—which he did not get at the time of leaving the service. He also was allowed five other different items of from $2 to $15 for pay, allowances and clothing, which he failed to receive at the time he was mustered out.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

When the blood becomes infected with the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, the symptoms are soon manifested. The mouth and throat ulcerate, copper-colored spots appear, a red rash breaks out, the hair begins to come out, and usually sores and ulcers show themselves on different parts of the body. At the first sign of the disease S. S. S. should be taken, for the trouble is too powerful and dangerous to trifle with. If allowed to run on the tendency is to work down and attack the bones and nerves, and sometimes it makes a complete physical wreck of the sufferer. The disease can make no such headway if S. S. S. is commenced and used according to directions; its progress can be stopped, the poison removed, and health preserved. S. S. S. goes into the blood and removes the insidious virus, cleanses the circulation and makes a complete and permanent cure by driving out the cause. S. S. S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and blemishes, and when S. S. S. has thoroughly purified the circulation no trace of the disease is left. S. S. S., a purely vegetable remedy, cures Contagious Blood Poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, tested and proven for more than forty years. Home treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write.

DIES IN WESTERN MINING CAMP

W. W. Worthington, Former Official of Lae Erie and Western.

Friends of W. W. Worthington in this city have been advised of his death, which occurred in Billings, Mont., three weeks ago, following a short illness. The remains were shipped to Cincinnati, where they were interred in the mafily burial lot in one of the cemeteries. Surviving Mr. Worthington are the widow and three daughters, all residing in Allston, Mass. In the early days of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Erie & Western, before the road fell into the hands of the Brice syndicate and was known as the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville road, Mr. Worthington was the general superintendent with headquarters in this city. When the property changed hands and a reorganization of the operating department occurred, Mr. Worthington returned to his old home and engaged in other pursuits. He became interested in mining projects and was on an inspection trip to the mining districts of Montana, looking after some mining interests, when he was taken ill and died. He resided in Fort Wayne probably four or five years and owned and occupied a fine residence property on Washington boulevard, west. Mr. Worthington was succeeded in railroad work by W. S. Morris, of this city.

ELECTRIC SALESMEN OPEN CONVENTION

A. A. Serva and His Force of Business Getters Gather Here.

SALESMEN IN CONFERENCE.

Men Who Make Business for Electric Works Gather Here.

At the call of Salesmanager, A. A. Serva, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, upwards of sixty salesmen from all parts of the country are here this week to hold a four days' session. The meetings began at 9 o'clock this morning in the assembly room in the new building at the plant on Broadway, the speakers this morning being General Manager F. S. Hunting, of the Fort Wayne branch, and E. G. Waters and A. A. Bush, of the Schenectady branch. This afternoon's program included addresses by J. J. Wood, A. L. Hadley, J. J. Kline, and Orville Cooper, of the local branch, all the subjects bearing on the products of the company's plants and the manner in which they should be present to market by the salesmen. Stereoptican illustrations were used where they could be employed advantageously to more clearly demonstrate the point the speaker wished to impress upon the minds of the hearers. The sessions today, Tuesday and Wednesday will be of an educational and business character and Thursday will be devoted to pleasure. Wednesday night the Pejuvenated Order of the Sons of Jove will meet at the Elks' home, at which something like forty applicants will be given initiation. Thursday evening the officials and the salesmen will have a banquet at the Anthony hotel.

BRAKEMAN HAS ARM BROKEN.

James Clark Victim of Accident at Indiana Harbor.

James Clark, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania, sustained a fracture of his left wrist last night when he fell while assisting the crew in doing some work in the yards at Indiana Harbor. He was placed on eastbound passenger train No. 24 and brought to this city and is now under the company's surgeon's care at St. Joseph's hospital. The young man has been in the employ of the company only a few months. He is a son of Jarvis M. Clark, a fireman at city engine house No. 7.

BACK TO THE THROTTLE.

John Abercrombie is An Engineer Once More.

A Kalamazoo paper publishes the following about a former resident of Fort Wayne and well known engineer on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road: "John H. Abercrombie, of this city, who is known as the millionaire engineer on account of having fallen heir to a fortune through the death of his brother, has grown tired of a life of inactivity and today took a run on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railway between this city and Grand Rapids.

"Several years ago through his own savings and by means of a fortune left him Engineer Abercrombie retired from th eroad, resolved to devote the rest of his life to his financial interests and to travel. The desire to again grasp the throttle remained strong in him since his retirement, however, and this could not be satisfied by either handling the reins of a spirited horse or the steering wheel of an automobile, both of which he purchased in his longing to keep moving. Travel with some one else in the cab proved irksome.

"Finding he could not get away from the longing to return to the road he made application for his old run between here and Grand Rapids and word was received yesterday that he had received his reappointment. He made his first trip today.

"Abercrombie during his voluntary retirement from the road kept his overalls, cap and neck cloth handy that he might get them quickly. He stated today that it will be the happiest moment of his life when he again becomes a sure-enough engineer. The father, James Abercrombie, was regarded as one of the best and fastest engineers in the employ of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad and had been with the company from the date the road was constructed until his death."

ROUND HOUSE BOYS ENTERTAINED

Were Guests of J. L. Bailey Saturday Night.

About thirty of the employes at the Pennsylvania round house had "the time of their lives," to use the expression of one of them, Saturday night when they were the guests of their comrade, James L. Bailey, and his wife. The occasion for the party was the thirty-sixth anniversary of the birth of the host, who is quite popular with his shopmates. The evening's amusements included cards, music and a delicious feast prepared by Mrs. Bailey. In the musical part of the program, Fred Bunck, John Likon and Frank Burns were the singers and B. V. Bailey, Robert Sullivan and Lloyd manipulated the mandolin and guitar in a most acceptable manner. And Felix Rub-No-More also was quite entertaining. As a memento of the occasion Mr. Bailey has a magnificent meerschaum pipe, presented to him by his shopmates.

RESUMES OLD POSITION.

E. E. Dildine Again Foreman of Erecting Shop.

This morning E. E. Dildine resumed the duties of general foreman at the Pennsylvania erecting shop. For the past two years he has been engaged at special work for the company, a good portion of it being the inspection of locomotive construction at the various plants where locomotives were built for the company. He welcomes the return to his old "job." During Mr. Dildine's absence the duties of the foreman at the erecting shop were performed by John T. Leach, the assistant foreman.

ENGINEER LEHMAN HURT.

Slipped on Cab Steps and Dislocated Kneecap.

Peter J. Lehman, a yard engineer on the Pennsylvania, sustained injuries Saturday night which may partly cripple him for life. As he was alighting from his engine his foot slipped and in the fall which followed his left knee struck the iron step with force sufficient to split the cap and tear a portion of it from its fastening. The injured man is now at the hospital.

SHOPMEN RESUME WORK.

Chris H. Shuster, the Pennsylvania shop carpenter, who sustained a sprained wrist ten days ago by a fall, was able to report for work this morning. A. C. Stemmler, the pipefitter, who was hurt some time ago, was also able to report for work this morning. In the blacksmith shop the following resumed work this morning: Owen Barry, who had a finger crushed; L. W. Winters, who had an eye burned; William Wartenbee, who had a hand injured, and D. A. Wolford, who had been sick.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

May Irwin at the Majestic Tomorrow Night.

May Irwin was the first singer to popularize rag-time melodies and "Coon" Ditties. Perhaps if that brand of comic song were introduced in the coarse, inartistic manner that prevails in their present day rendering, it is doubtful if they ever could be received with favor by the American public. Miss Irwin was the innovator of the style and the creator of the type of syncopated melodies. She eliminated vulgarity, and imparted certain artistic values in the reading of this kind of songs, that none of her many imitators have ever achieved. In her new comedy, "She Knows Better Now," which will be seen in this city at the Majestic tomorrow night, Miss Irwin will sing three new songs, written especially for her by Irving Berlin, author of "Alexander's Rag Time Band." The new songs are called "The Rag Time Mocking Bird," "Straight Back to Dixie" and "The Brand New Girl."

Seat Sale Tomorrow for "Passers-By."

The sale of seats opens tomorrow morning at the Majestic theater for Friday, March 29th, when Charles Frohman will present the latest C. Haddon Chambers' play, "Passers-By," which is considered one of the most interesting contributions to the American stage in many seasons. It has enjoyed a four months' run at the Criterion theater, New York, and made an equally brilliant hit in London. Playgoers of this city who have seen the piece in New York this season are loud in praise of "Passers-By," and say it is something decidedly new, full of surprises, both of laughter and sentiment. The original company that played the piece at the Criterion theater, New York, and at the Blackstone theater, Chicago, will appear here.

How to Use Corn Meal For Dry Shampooing

(Mrs. Rohrer in Style and Fashion.)

"Nearly every woman knows that there is nothing better for cleaning furs than corn meal. Simply sprinkle it over the garment you wish to clean, brush it out thoroughly and the task is accomplished. Every tiny particle of dirt and dust adheres to the corn meal and comes away with it, leaving the furs rich and glossy.

"On the same principle corn meal cleans the scalp and hair. Put a half pound of corn meal in a fruit jar and mix with it four ounces of amotone. This will give you a shampoo powder that not only removes dirt, oil and dandruff from the head, but the amotone also refreshes the scalp and hair roots for it is an excellent hair grower.

"This mixture has a delicate perfume and leaves the hair beautifully soft and fluffy. Of course, the corn meal and amotone should be thoroughly mixed."

FORT WAYNE, IND., T. J. T. Cummings, 607 E. Washington St., writes us:
"For two years I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys and bladder. My back ached and the kidney action was too frequent. I became nervous and dizzy and specks would float before my eyes. Although I had been taking medicine for this trouble I was fast getting worse, until one day I took some of Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me wonderfully. After a little they effected a complete cure, leaving my kidneys in a healthy, normal condition, and all nervousness, dizziness and backaches have disappeared. Foley Kidney Pills completely rid me of all my former trouble and I gladly recommend them to anyone in need of a good kidney medicine."
Kidney and bladder diseases are so serious in effect, and if not checked, so dangerous in results, that any one so afflicted wants to be sure that the medicine they take is just the RIGHT MEDICINE to EFFECT A CURE. And as Foley & Co., have self-written testimonials from people in every state who have been cured by using
they give every sufferer from Kidney and Blader diseases an opportunity to consult some one in their immediate neighborhood, regarding the great healing qualities of FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS. For Backache, Rheumatism, Nervousness and Sleeplessness arising from Kidney and Bladder Disorders, and for All Urinary Irregularities, take FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS.

General Baden-Powell, originator of the Boy Scout movement, has had a watch made which can be read in the dark. Instead of the thin hands usual in watches, they are very thick, while the quarter hours are also denoted by heavy marks. Thus the watch can be seen almost in the inky darkness.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., March 25.—In view of a disturbing fall in the amount of wheat on hand at Liverpool and the lightness of stocks elsewhere in Europe, prices here today showed additional strength. May started at $1.03½@1.03¼ and rose to $1.03⅝.

Business later shifted a good deal to the July future. In consequence the market as a whole eased off. The visible supply decrease was less than expected. Closing figures were easy with May at $1.02¾, a decline of ⅜@½c net.

Commission house demand proved sufficient to advance corn, May opened at 72c to 72⅛c.

A further gain was scored on account of good demand southwest, but prices afterward weakened because of bearish advices from New England. The close was at 72⅛c for May, ⅛c above Saturday night.

Leading concerns were conspicuous on the bull side of oats. Pit traders, however, opposed efforts to life the market. May started at 53⅝c to 53⅞c, and seemed unable to move above the last named figures.

The larger run of hogs here and west received little attention. A notable absence of selling pressure had more effect and resulted in making products more costly. Initial sales varied from a shade down to 12½c advance, with July delivery $16.84 for pork, $9.77½ for lard and $9.15 to $9.47½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, March 25.—Last week's buying movement was resumed at the opening of today's stock market. The features were United States Steel, which opened with a block of 9,000 shares at 69½c to 69¾c, a maximum advance of almost a point and American Smelting, which sold up to 88¼c, compared with 85⅞c last Saturday. There were 1-point gains in National Lead, Utah Copper, Great Northern Ore Certificates and Western Maryland. The Harriman stocks, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Rock Island, Norfolk & Western and Pennsylvania all rose substantially.
Operations during the early session were on a scale such as the market has not witnessed in many months. The further advance took a large part of the professional element by surprise, that faction having looked for a reaction because of a relative backwardness of the standard stocks. As each buying movement seemed to exhaust the demand it was followed by another rise, especially in the metal stocks which easily assumed leadership of the market. Bonds were firm.
The market closed steady; the movement made its first impressive pause in the last hour, at which time such leaders as United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and Union Pacific had lost practically all of their early advance.

OUTFITTERS CO. CELEBRATE THEIR 11TH ANNIVERSARY

Saturday marked the eleventh anniversary of the Fort Wayne Outfitters Co. as a business concern in Fort Wayne. Much credit should be given L. M. Hallenstein, secretary and manager of the concern, and to his brother, Ben Hallenstein, for the successful business which they have built since their establishment, and for the sterling methods they have used in serving the public.

Mr. Hallenstein and his brother came here from Baltimore, Md., in 1901 and opened their store on East Berry street on March 23 of the same year. They have always been located in the same rooms on East Berry street, and it is here that by their fine treatment to their customers they have built up the largest trade in the city. The Hallenstein brothers own another store of their own in Joliet, Ill., and are connected with the Hartman syndicate, an organization which owns forty-four stores in the United States.

Never before have we shown a better assortment of boys' shirts, with separate collars to match. Also with collar attached, 50c and $1.00.

HOLDS FEDERAL POWER SUPREME

Railway Tariff Decision Virtually Wipes Out State Lines.

MUST ADJUST RATES

Washington, March 25.—The interstate commerce commission, in an opinion made public yesterday, established the far-reaching principle that a railroad must so adjust its rates that justice will be done between communities regardless of state lines. If a railroad makes a low rate upon traffic wholly within a state, even when forced to do so by a state commission, it must accord the same rate to interstate traffic moving under substantially similar conditions.

The principle was laid down by a vote of 4 to 3. The authority held that the powers of congress were usurped by the majority opinion and that the remedy for such a situation should be applied through additional legislation. The decision was in the case of the railroad commission of Louisiana against the St. Louis and Southwestern railway and other carriers operating between Louisiana and Texas.

The case practically precipitated a conflict between federal and state authority over the control of interstate traffic. The opinion of the majority of the interstate commerce commission, prepared and handed down by Commissioner Lane, is a definite assertion of the supremacy of national regulatory authority over the powers exercised by any state.

Sets Precedent.

It is the first time this assertion has been made distinctly by the commission. In making it Chairman Prouty and Commissioners Clark and Meyer concurred with Commissioner Lane, and Commissioners Clements, Harlan and McChord dissented.

The proceeding brought by the Louisiana commission placed in issue the right of interstate carriers to discriminate in favor of state traffic and against interstate traffic.

"The complaint," the opinion says, "is that the carriers defendant make rates out of Dallas and other Texas points into eastern Texas, which are much lower than those which they extend into Texas from Shreveport, La. A rate of 60 cents carries first-class traffic to the eastward from Dallas, a distance of 160 miles, while the same rate of 60 cents will carry the same class of traffic only fifty-five miles into Texas from Shreveport."

The low rate within the state of Texas was forced upon the railroads by the Texas railroad commission in furtherance of a policy to protect and promote the jobbing interests of Texas. The Louisiana commission and that state's commercial interests declared that Louisiana was being discriminated against because of the exaction of the higher rates from Shreveport westward and demanded an adjustment of the rates.

Ruling of Majority.

The contentions of Louisiana were sustained by the commission absolutely. The majority held:

That the present class rates from Shreveport to Texas points are unreasonable and lower rates are prescribed, which must be put into effect by May 1.

That the present relation of rates, eastbound and westbound, from Shreveport gives an undue preference to Dallas and Houston and other Texas cities, and the carriers are ordered to establish the same rates on westbound as on eastbound traffic.

That if a state, by the exercise of its lawful power, establishes rates which the interstate carrier makes effective upon state traffic, that carrier does so with the full knowledge that the federal government requires it to apply such rates under like conditions upon interstate traffic. To say that an interstate carrier may discriminate against intrastate commerce because of the order of a state commission would be to admit that a state may limit and prescribe the flow of commerce between the states.

LIFE'S SPAN INCREASED.

Average of Twelve Years Added to Age of Person by Science.

New York, March 25.—The achievement of medical science has added about twelve years to the average period of human existence, in the last half century, according to a statement given out by Prof. William H. Walsch in connection with the celebration of the forty-third anniversary of the Presbyterian hospital here.

"Since the first actual records were taken in New York city in the middle of the sixties," says Dr. Walsch, "the rates of mortality have ben reduced from 35 deaths in each 1,000 inhabitants to about 15 or 16. This reduction in mortality is the sequence of our control of infectious diseases. We have made no such achievement, however, regarding the organic diseases of advancing years which afflict especially those who have been active in affairs and who have large responsibilities."

WHAT DO DOGS THINK?

Kansas Professor Believes Animals Have Reasoning Powers.

Lawrence, Kan., March 25.—Do animals have minds, powers of discrimination and ability to reason and form ideas? These are the problems which Prof. F. C. Dockery, of the department of psychology of the University of Kansas, is trying to determine.

Prof. Dockery has several pups and cats with which he conducts a daily psychological experiment. The animals are placed in cages. The cages are fitted with springs, which the animals are learning to open. One cage has a combination of three springs, which a large Angora cat is learning to operate. The distinctions between color and sound are also being taught.

"We want to give the animals a chance to form their own ideas and reason for themselves," said Prof. Dockery. "We want to either prove or disprove that animals have ideas and discrimination."

Mr. Dockery believes that the dog has a more highly developed mind than the cat.
